CHARLESTON, SC (DECEMBER 19, 2013) – Five Charleston area nonprofits received funding from the Heritage Classic Foundation on Thursday thanks to the success of the 2013 RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing. Members of the Heritage Classic Foundation Board of Directors presented $50,000 to five nonprofits serving Charleston, thanks in part to Boeing's sponsorship of the only PGA TOUR golf tournament in South Carolina.

Each of the following nonprofits received a check for $10,000 at a reception inside the Boeing Welcome Center:

Communities in Schools
Lowcountry Food Bank
Ronald McDonald House
Charleston Trident Urban League
Habitat for Humanity—Dorchester County

The checks, together with better than $2 million already donated, brings this year's total to $2.1 million. The Foundation's grand total of charity giving since 1987 is now more than $25,000,000.

"We believe each of the five groups is doing outstanding work. These donations celebrate the great partnership we have with Boeing," said Heritage Classic Foundation Charity Committee Chairman, Stan Smith. "Giving back to these groups is a tribute to the success of the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing Golf Tournament."

About Heritage Classic Foundation: The Heritage Classic Foundation is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving lives throughout the state of South Carolina. As the general sponsor of the PGA TOUR's RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing, millions of dollars generated from ticket sales and sponsorships are distributed to charitable organizations that enhance the quality of life for our citizens. Since it was founded as a 501 (c)(3) in 1987, the Foundation has donated more than $25 million to people in need.
