HERITAGE CLASSIC FOUNDATION HIRES NEW VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, SC -- The Heritage Classic Foundation is welcoming Tyler Daly to the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing team. Daly is the new Volunteer Coordinator and Tournament Support Manager. He replaced long time Foundation employee Bonnie Hunt. Hunt started working for the Heritage Golf Tournament in 1969 and retired after the 2015 tournament.

Daly worked for the Heritage Classic Foundation from October 2014 to April 2015 as an intern responsible for tournament operations and ticket sales. He recently completed an internship with the American Junior Golf Association. Previously, he worked with the Atlanta Beat soccer team, Cleveland City Stars soccer team, Major League Soccer and ESPN.

Daly attended Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut and Brunel University in London, England. He grew up in Simsbury, Connecticut, but has called Hilton Head Island home since 2013.
