HERITAGE CLASSIC FOUNDATION
PRESENTS SOUTH CAROLINA CONGRESSIONAL CUP PROCEEDS TO TECHNICAL COLLEGES

COLUMBIA, SC (April 10, 2014) Representatives from the Heritage Classic Foundation, general sponsor of the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing and host of last November's South Carolina Congressional Cup, presented $40,000 to the 16 technical/community colleges across the Palmetto State at Thursday's SC Technical College System quarterly meeting. The following schools received $2,500 for use as scholarship awards to deserving students: Technical College of the Lowcountry, Trident Technical College, Aiken Technical College, Piedmont Technical College, Tri-County Technical College, Greenville Technical College, Spartanburg Community College, Central Carolina Technical College, York Technical College, Denmark Technical College, Midlands Technical College, Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College, Williamsburg Technical College, Florence-Darlington Technical College, Horry-Georgetown Technical College and Northeastern Technical College.

"The Heritage Classic Foundation is committed to helping South Carolinians get the education they need and deserve," said Heritage Classic Foundation Chairman Simon Fraser. "We hope the students who receive these donations graduate and find rewarding careers here in the Palmetto State."

The SC Technical College System is committed to helping increase the employability of all South Carolinians by ensuring they are fully prepared for the careers of today and tomorrow. As the largest higher education system in the state, the System provides its 114,000 credit students and 128,000 continuing education students with a comprehensive education and a fast track to a rewarding career. In addition, the System's nationally-recognized affiliate programs, designed to train or re-train employees so that companies new to South Carolina and existing businesses alike can continue to prosper and grow, help spur job growth and economic development opportunities across the state.

The SC Technical College System is not only preparing students of all ages for real work today, but also demonstrating a commitment to increasing the employability of all South Carolinians and ultimately enhancing the quality of life for all.
